

ROI of Volunteer Leadership

Overall ROI of 246%
 for the experience as a volunteer leader.

Benefit-Cost Ratio

For every $1 invested,
$3.46 was returned.

Implications

Individuals

- » Skill development
- » Increased network
- » Deeper relationships

Organizations

- » A way to develop leaders
- » Support nonprofit associations

actively used the following seven leadership skills in their role as a volunteer leader.

identified these two factors to have contributed to building role-specific leadership skills.

- 01 Led a team or board of directors.
- 02 Launched new projects.
- 03 Facilitated organizational strategic planning.
- 04 Facilitated or presented at local chapter meetings.
- 05 Contributed value to the industry or organization.
- 06 Participated in relationship-building programs or activities.
- 07 Facilitated public-speaking opportunities at international association conferences.

5/09/10

Source credit: Dr. Maureen Orey, CPLP,
<https://pqdopen.proquest.com/doc/1810149522.html?FMT=ABS>